Chairs Report

Discussion

Rick – Focus on action items we can present to the City Council

Dan – strategic plan update/identification of stakeholders/ value of the BEDP

Action Item – review the stakeholders and give feedback on who we believe would be active in economic development

BEDP - advisory committee for the stakeholder groups

Action item - BEDP Oct 28th –city council study session 7pm – BEDP invited to attend

REIT rep, key large employers, commercial real estate owners, would be a good invitee for that meeting

Dan – divided up the city in to six areas for the purpose to identify commercial property owners by sub area

Action Item – Dan forward the scope of services

Dan –there will be a public meeting prior to the meeting on Oct 28th

1. Staff
2. Stakeholders
3. Public
4. Study Session

Plan development and the planning process

Matt – Art in the Alley update/B Town Beat update

Between 1st & 10th on 152nd

Art Alley – local businesses allowing space to be used for art murals in the alley. Based on donations.

B Town beat update – 6-7 businesses just opening this month. Majority of attention would be welcoming those businesses.

Discussion – Clean Sweep

Contracted with Discover Burien

Annual Clean Sweep event around Earth Day

Graffiti response team – expediency is of the essences. Businesses can sign up in advance for the service. No charge.

Clean Scapes is our current contractor on graffiti removal

Waste management services – part of the scope of services is graffiti removal

Paying less in fees and getting improved services

Will not have to pay for yard waste

152nd location where you can take recyclables and light bulbs, etc.

Summer 2014 Jun 1st

City Report – Sep 16th – zoning code amendment crucial to town square development. Alteration of the private recreation space.

NERA Planning - October 7th - City Staff bringing update on NERA project to the City Council concerning drainage, uses and I-518 ramp.

Rick - BEDP Functioning with other City boards - Arts Commission, Parks Board, Planning Commission. - possible quarterly or annual meetings to prevent acting in isolation or speculation.
