

How are the Salmon in Miller and Walker Creeks doing?

Community Salmon Investigation (CSI) for Highline results are in!! Bring your family and friends for a fun-filled evening and learn about the status of salmon in your watershed.

Wednesday, March 7th, 2018 | 6 - 7:00 pm

Burien Community Center, Lakewood Room
14700 6th Avenue SW, Burien

- and -

Wednesday, March 14th, 2018 | 6 - 7:00 pm

Normandy Park Community Club (The Cove)
1500 SW Shorebrook Drive, Normandy Park

Light refreshments provided at both events

Learn about:

- The Community Salmon Investigation driven by local community scientists
- Long-term trends in coho and chum salmon returns
- Factors affecting salmon and stream health, including polluted runoff
- Pre-spawn mortality and its impact on local salmon
- How you can contribute to improving watershed health
- Volunteering to count salmon this fall

For additional Information:

- Web search key words "CSI Highline" or www.kingcounty.gov/environment/watersheds/central-puget-sound/miller-walker-creeks/salmon-monitoring.aspx
- Contact Matt Goehring, Miller/Walker Basin Steward, mattgoehring@kingcounty.gov, (206) 263-6826

Community Salmon Investigation for Highline is a volunteer program supported by a partnership of:

Miller-Walker Basin Local partners working together for clean water and healthy streams

