ANNOUNCEMENTS/PRESENTATIONS

Presentation on Commercial Recycling by Susan Robinson, Waste Management

Susan Robinson, from Waste Management, reviewed the new commercial recycling program implemented in the City in February 2009. The enhanced recycling program encourages commercial recycling through economic incentives. She provided an overview of the audit results noting that more than 100 businesses have signed up for recycling for the first time and are saving money by lowering their garbage rate.

Follow-up

Staff will place the recycling information on the City's website.

Update on the Southwest King County Economic Development Initiative (SKCEDI), by Allison Clark, Economic Development Specialist with Highline Community College

Dick Loman, Economic Development Manager, noted that SKCEDI is a cooperative effort to enhance investment and employment opportunities in Southwest King County. The partners include the cities of Des Moines, Normandy Park, SeaTac, Tukwila, and the Port of Seattle, Highline Community College and King County. He introduced Allison Clark, Economic Development Specialist.

Ms. Clark spoke to the Business Attraction Program (BAP) that was started in 2008. She reviewed the marketing materials and the concerted outreach efforts. A new website will be online in April, and a business video for the southwest King County area is being created.
